New teams will submit their entry fee along with the existing teams as well as a security bond. The fee will be returned if they are not admitted to the League but if they withdraw from league before it starts a $100 administration fee will be charged.

Section 3 - Player Eligibility

1. Divisional play
A person shall only be allowed to play (or be on a roster) of a team which is no more than 1 divisions lower then their highest rated team with SPO regardless if it is in BESPL or not. For example if you play on a men's "B" team you can only play as low as "C".
2. Disbarment

Should any Team cause their own disbarment for any reason and for any duration, then each player that is on the eligibility list at the time of the disbarment shall also be disbarred. Each player will be prohibited from playing in the League on any other Team until the disqualification has been dealt with. Any player, who is disqualified because of the disqualification of his team, may apply to the Executive for special consideration; however, it will be at the Executive Committee's discretion to allow that player to participate on another team.

Section 4 - Play-off Eligibility

1. Attendance Requirement

A full-time player must be in attendance for at least 50% +1 of their team's games and registered on the score sheet whether it be as an active player or as an injury. EXCEPTION - If you find yourself in a situation where you will be short, less than your required minimum for a night or a series (ex 5 guys as apposed to 6 in Tuesday Coed) then you can request permission from the Executive to use a player from your roster for that particular game in order to bring you up to your minimum number of players required. You may not ask for this request and have 7 males playing that night. You're only allowed this exception to give you the exact number of players required, without any additional. As mentioned above, this has to be done in writing to the Executive and permission granted also in writing before being done.

2. Score sheet

For verification purposes team representatives should ensure that all score sheets contain the players' first and last names.

Section 5 - Rosters

1. Cut off Date

 - In the batting order, no more that two (2) male batters may bat in a row. If there is an injury to one of the female batters and she cannot continue, the team either has to invoke the substitution rule to bring in a new female player or the position in the batting order will have to be counted as an out.
 - There shall be a minimum of four (4) female players on the field playing defense.
 - There will be no games scheduled to be played with other divisions of the League.
 - If a male batter is walked and there is a female batter on deck, he automatically advances to second base. The female batter, batting next in order, has the option of batting or receiving a walk to first.
 - There is a 5 run per inning limit until the last inning which is open.
- All other nights
 - The batting order must rotate between male and female batters.
 - If a game is started with 5 males and 4 females the batting spot for the fifth female is an automatic out.
 - If there is an injury to one of the female batters and she cannot continue, the team either has to invoke the substitution rule to bring in a new female player or the position in the batting order will have to be counted as an out.
- NEW RULE UPDATE
 - If you are playing coed the previous rule stated that you may not bat more guys then girls in an order. However after careful consideration we have amended this rule to say that if you want to bat more guys then girls not only in a short situation you may but in any situation where you have more guys batting in a row then allowed you MUST take an automatic out where the girl should be. For example, if you play 5 & 5 coed and you find yourself with 6 guys and 5 girls one night you have to take an automatic out where the 2 guys end up batting back to back. Or if you have 7 guys and 5 girls you have to take 2 automatic outs in the order where the two guys bat back to back in two different spots. Where this rule differs from before is you used to only be allowed to do this in a SHORT SITUATION and now you may do it at any time. Please remember that you may bat more girls than guys at any time without penalty. In a 6 & 4 coed situation the same rule applies as above but its where you have 3 guys batting back to back that the out must be taken.
